

be enlarged, the pleasurable features of Flagstaff society would be greatly increased.

Go to Davison & Cronin's for everything first-class in harness and saddles. Up to date. You know the place. 240

Dr. P. G. Cornish, the chief surgeon of the Santa Fe railroad employes' hospital at Albuquerque, spent Thursday here.

J. W. England and wife of Redlands, Cal., who have been visiting the Grand Canyon of the Colorado, left for their home yesterday.

Jones, the man who last week ran a piek through his instep at the water-works, was brought to town Wednesday and taken to the hospital.

The young men of town are endeavoring to organize a brass band. There is plenty of talent among them and their efforts should prove successful.

Rev. C. P. Wilson has been assigned by the Southern California M. E. conference to China, Cal., which is only five miles from his home in Pomona.

The Peoples' store has the large stock of dry goods, fancy gents furnishing goods, hosiery, millinery, etc., ever opened in Flagstaff. Call and see us. *

C. A. Baxter of Kingman has accepted the position of clerk at the New Bank hotel. Mr. Baxter is a pleasant gentleman and is fully qualified for the position.

Thomas C. Jobs, an attorney at law from Kansas City, spent several days here this week. He has decided to locate at Prescott and left for that place Thursday.

Invitations are out for a grand masquerade ball on November 4, and the ladies and gentlemen of this exclusive berg are already preparing their costumes for the occasion. It promises to be the social event of the season.

H. R. Davis is now acting agent at this place for the Santa Fe Pacific railroad. The railroad company would please its patrons if they made him their agent here.

David Mitchell, manager of the Arizona Sandstone company at this place, left Wednesday morning for Buena Park, Cal., where he will spend the winter with his family on his ranch.

Does that boy of yours need a suit of clothes? If so, bring him around to the Flagstaff Cash Store and get him fitted out in one of our handsome, durable suits, and it won't cost you much to make your boy happy. *

E. N. Cotton came here from Albuquerque Saturday to take the Santa Fe Pacific agency, but after the transfer was made he was taken with heart trouble, due to the altitude, and Sunday resigned, leaving for Albuquerque Monday.

George Hill, W. G. Henry, Dan Hogan, C. C. Jackson and C. H. McClure composed a party of bear hunters who went to the San Francisco peaks Saturday. George Hill was fortunate enough to kill two black bears about half-way up the south side of the peak.

Roadoverseer A. A. Allen of Williams was here Monday in attendance on the board of supervisors. He was making earnest effort to relinquish his position, for the reason, as he stated, few men could stand the prosperity of such an office and eat three times a day.

Dr. Heavenston, a practical dentist whose work is known and commended all over Arizona, is in town and will remain for two weeks. He has leased the office of James Loy and will occupy it exclusively, so that the doctor's patients will be as entirely private as it is possible in a dental office. The doc-